BEDDING, STOVES, PICTURES.

87th YEAR.

EVERYTHING FOR HOUSEKEEPING.

Longer Credit Given Than by Any Other House.

Ready Reference

ILLIONAIRE,

AGISTRATE,

ERCHANT,

ECHANIC.

ANUFACTURER,

Reliable

WOLKEHNS HELD FOR TRIAL.

Not His Fault that He Is Not Charged with Murder.

His Desperate Battle with Two Policemen.

George Walkehns, of 982 Myrtle nuc, Brooklyn, was held in $1,500 ball by Justice Connolly in the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, to-day, to answer a charge of shooting Policeman Thomas Donohue, of the Liberty avenue and he was locked up in the pen. Donohue was still in St. Mary's Hospital this morning, and the wound in his thigh is very painful. He will not be able to return to duly for several weeks.

Walkelians and Charles Kaiser, of Liberty avenue, went pigeon shooting at leaver Park yesterday afternoon, At 4.30 octock a dispute arose, Walkelian accusing Kaiser of taking the pigeons he shot.

shot.

It is companion was very excited, and reiterated the charge. He held his rifle in his arms. Hot words followed, and, piacing the weapon to his shoulder. Waigehus threatened to shoot Kaiser if he didn't go away.

Policeman Donohue, who was off duty, happened to be in the vicinity, and he witnessed the quarrel. He ran towards them, and as he got within a few feet of the combatants, Waikehus struck the officer with his hand and knocked him down.

down.

Donohue struggied to his feet and attempted to grab his assailant. Walkehus jumped backwards and pulled the trigger of his rifle. A sharp report followed, and Donohue fell to the ground. The builet entered as thigh and made a lrage hole.

builet entered s thigh and made a frage hole.

Walkehns appeared to be preparing for another shot, when Mounted Policeman John Clarke appeared on the scene. Walkehns then took to his heels, and ran away. Clarke followed him, and was overtaking him, when Walkehns turned and sent another boilet in Clarke's direction.

Clarke s direction.

Clarke fumped from his horse, and drawing his club, prepared for a fierce encounter. Just as he reached Walkehns the latter raised his rifls and attempted to strike Clarke on the head.

Clarke dodged and the gan went flying from Walkehns grasp. Then men closed into each other, and both rolled around the ground.

Walkehns was gatting the best of the

OLDEST INHABITANT DEAD.

Mrs. Mary Smith Dies in Morrisania

One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, one was injured. and without doubt the senior in s of any other inhabitant in New years of any other inhabitant in New York City.

According to the certificate of death According to the certificate of death (Vital Statistics, Mrs. Smith was born in Ireland in 1726, She came to America in 1843, and has lived in New York ever since. Her maiden name was Layelle. She has been a widow for many years. The funeral will occur to-morrow.

HE DIED ANYHOW.

Pneumon'a Set In.

" He failed to commit suicide, but he died anyhow, said Dr. Gifford, of the Eastern apprehension as to the real purport Pistrict Hospital, Williamsburg, to-day in and effect of the decision rendered by talking about the case of Martin Hoar.

Justice Pratt, of the Supreme Court, Hoar lived at 133 Kent avenue, and while in Brooklyn, yesterday, in the case of despondent because of his inability to obtain the Drew Seminary against Danie stoners Mandamused Tc-Day.

MUST REINSTATE CASEY. Long Island City's Fire Commis-

Louis Haenberg, of 100A Bergen street, Brooklyn, was held for the Grand Jury by Court, Brooklyn, this morning on the charge of ruining the sight of Axel Rundquist's left evening of Feb. 17 the men were sitting at supper. They became engaged in a heated discussion. Haenerg struck Rundquist in the left eye with a pepper bottle.

THOUGHT SHE WAS AT HOME.

Instead She Was Drunk and Goes to Jail for Ten Days.

Sophia Meyer, of 133 Grand street, Willismsburg, was te-day sent to jail for ten from Walkehus grasp. Then men closed the ground.

Walkehus was gatting the best of the struggle, when Poheeman Donohue, with blood dripping from his wound, came limping to his contral's assistance.

With Donohue's aid Walkehus was family overpowered, and was taken to the police station.

In court this morning Walkehus entered a plea of not guilty.

Late last night Sophia staggered into the Bedford around station and asked Sergt.

Richard around station and asked Sergt.

Richard around station staggered into the Bedford around the ground.

Late last night Sophia staggered into the Bedford around the ground asked Sergt.

Richard around staggered into the Bedford around the ground around the ground.

Late last night Sophia staggered into the Bedford around station and asked Sergt.

Richard around the gain went flying station and asked Sergt.

Richard around the gain went flying station and asked Sergt.

Richard around the gain went flying station and asked Sergt.

Richard around the gain went flying station and asked Sergt.

Was arraigned to-day before Justice Noble on a charge of grand larceny, the complainants being school Trustees John Rudiman and John Loughlin.

Armed with a search warrant, Messrs, Rudiman and Loughlin went to Mrs. Purceil's being school trustees John Rudiman and John Loughlin.

The court this morning Walkehus entered a plea of not guilty.

Mrs. Mary Smith Dies in Morrisania at the Age of 107.

The death is announced to-day of O'Rogan & Conners, of Twenty-fifth street, Brosslyn. It was badly smassed up, and the distribution of the car was demoished. No

Events Ahead in Brooklyn.

Entertainment for the Building Fund, Brooklyn Tabernacie, this evening Rev. W. B. Farrell on "Penance and the World," St. John's R. C. Church, to-night.

"The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year," When from domestic scenes a man Will quickly disappear; And brooms, and mops and kindred Absorb his wedded wife; [things] But he'll return at eventide And sweetly smile we trust,

WASHING POWDER

4 lbs. for 25 cents.

Made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., CHICAGO,
St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Montreal.

NO CLOUD ON THE TITLE.

Martin Hoar Failed at Suicide, but The Drew Seminary Right to Its Site Is Without Defect.

There seems to have been some mir work cut the arteries of his wrists. The wounded man was taken to the Eastera Distrier Hospital, where, with care, he recovered from his wounds.

Complications ensued, however, and Hoar
died of phoumonia late last hight.

Complications ensued, however, and Hoar
died of phoumonia late last hight.

create a wrong impression among the many friends of that institution, Drew

"Justice Pratt, while technically sustaining the demurrer, renders an opinion which settles the entire controlon which settles the seminary is concerned, and no further litigation will be recessary. His opinion coincides in all respects with the claim of the trustees; holding that the trust deed to Chamberlain was absolutely cold; that it conveyed no interest whatever to him; and that the seminary has no action against him, to remove such alleged cloud upon its title, for the reason that there is no cloud at all. "This was the only ruling sought, and the only one for which the trustees contended, and settles a long standing impression, that there was some defect in the seminary's title to its property."

CALL IT PERSECUTION.

Janutress Purceil Arrested by Gleason's Enemies.

John Loughlin.

Armed with a search warrant, Messrs. Rudiman and Loughlin went to Mrs. Purceil's before she will be able to get out. thought I was home, Your Honor."

Trolley Car and Truck Collided.
Another trolley-car accident was reported by the Brooklyn police this morning. Car No. 920, of the Third avenue line, collided with a lumber track at Fighth street and Third avenue. The truck is owned by Okogan & Conners, of Twenty-fifth street, Brosklyn. It was badly smashed up, and the dashboard of the car was demolished. No given them to her.

Mrs. Purcell was released in $500 ball for a hearing next Thursday.

Mrs. Purcell was appointed janitress of the Fifth Ward Public School by Mayor Gleason. His political opponents did not succeed in turning her out of the School until March I. Gleason men say her arrest is persecution.

DE LUCCA HELD FOR BIGAMY.

Two of His Wives Present Their Marriage Certificates.

Michael Angelo De Lucca, the Italian sculptor, was held in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day on a charge of bigamy preferred by two of his four alleged wives. by his first wife, Maria Vecenta Rosario, but encountered a surprise in the shape of an apencountered a surprise in the shape of an application by Lawyer Revol that he be held on a charge of biganty. To support this he exhibited two marriage certificates, one of Maria Rosarios, which showed that she was married to be Lucca in Italy on Aug. 12. 1808, while the other was that of Angolina Scoriate, the third wife, who was married to him in New York City May 19, 1892.

"The other two women were also married to this prisoner," said Lawyer Revoi, "but they have not their certificates hand, and these two are enough for the present prosecution."

RADAM MUST PAY $6,000.

Dr. Eccles Wins His Libel Suit Against the Microbe-Killer.

Brooklyn this morning, returned a verdict of $6,000 for the plaintiff and $300 additional Radam manufactures a microbe killer. Dr.

Eccles exposed the method of manufacture and composition of the stuff. Radam replied through the press, characterizing Eccles as a quack and charlatan.

THE WORLD: THURSDAY EVENING, MAROH 9, 1893.

FURNITURE, CARPETS,

Boys'

notched collar.

The Strong Suit.

(Sizes 4 to 12 ventrs.)

$4.95.

stripes, Cunards, White Duck

at $2., $2.25 & $2.75.

Lord& Taylor

The Janitress Also Frefers a Charge

Against Him. Patrick Scannett, a shoemaker, of 220 East

Eighty-second street, was held in Harlem

Police Court to-day in $300 ball for assaulting his wife and in $500 ball for assaulting his wife and in $500 ball for assaulting Mary Suarpey, the janitress at 218 East Eighty-second street.

Scannell beat his wife March I so badly that she was in bed for five days. Last Monday she got a warrant for him, but he disappeared. Last night he showed up, assaulted the janitress and was promptly arrested.

Electricity His Evil Genius.

Early this morning Policeman Fick, of the Thirt; fifth street squad, saw Emanuel Velasquez, sixty, a shoemaker at 10 Forsyth elasquez for examination as to his sanity.

The Sea Foam's Crew Rescued

Fractured His Wife's Skull,

William Dummer, of 84 Morris street, Jer-

Wash suits in navy blue

Mrs. Brogan, of Bayshore, 193 Knocked Down in Brooklyn.

Two Youths Who Followed Her LOW PRICES, GOOD GOODS, LARGEST STOCK. Are Arrested for the Crime.

Justice Pratt, in Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this grandson, Dance the morphing, granted a writ of mandamus for property to the institution in fee, as soon as it should be prepared to receive the same of appointed under the Cull-service law.

I casey was appointed by ex-Mayor Gleason and was removed by Mayor Sanford. He was of judicially determining the effect of fills trust deed, and to compel chain to convey in fee said property. It was not compiled with in Casey's case.

THREW A PEPPER-BOTTLE.

Signal for the purpose of obtaining a fudicial to convey the adjected cloud upon the questions of law was the filled by the fills trust deed, as were any.

THREW A PEPPER-BOTTLE.

Signal for the purpose of obtaining a fudicial opinion upon the questions of law was interposed for the very purpose of obtaining a fudicial opinion upon the questions of law as a witness.

The prisoners were remanded for examination, and Mrs. Brogan was defined by Mrs. Brogan was defined.

The prisoners were remanded for examination, and Mrs. Brogan was defined by Mrs. Brogan was defined as a witness.

TOOK SHAYNE TO KINGSTON.

Held in Ball for Abandonment, Arrested for Grand Larceny.

the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day ferred by his wife, and was then taken to With extra pants. Kingston, where he is wanted for grand lar-

Mamie, the daughter of Police-Sergt, Rierdon, She was a well-known accrety belle. She

She was a well-known society belle. She charged him with abandonment and assault several days age and he appeared in court to-day to answer.

An officer from Eingston came in while shayne was slitting there, and, after getting a warrant countersigned, took Shayne into custedly on a charge of grand largeny, the complainant. Seing Theodore Fischer, a kingston merchant, who says he gave three scalasin sacques valued at $1000 to shayne to repair and never got them back.

This moddled up Shayne's case so badly that the various lawyers being a hurried consultation. Finally Shayne gave $1,000 bonds to answer to the Brookiya Charges, and was then taken to Kingston.

ARRESTED FOR SNOWBALLING.

Six Williamsburg Schoolboys Lectured in Police Court.

Six small boys, charged with throwing snowballs, were lectured severely by Justice Goetting in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsstored there.

Mrs. Parcell denied the charge and told the Court that ahe had come in possession of the articles in question three years ago, when send it Commissioner William Gibson had tend st. Vincent de Paul's parish school, energies in the court of the court o burg, to day. Every afternoon about 4 gage in snowball fights. The only adults who WIFE-BEATER SCANNELL HELD.

Reaford avenue station, sent their officers in citizens clothes to Driggs avenue and North sixth street. They found the snewball battle raging flercely, and arrested Thomas Connors, Clinton Fieck, James Owens, John Heimman, Walter Bochat and Anthony Schrauth, none of whom is over fourteen years of are.

"Faust" to Be Sung for Charity, The French Benevolent Society, for whose beneat the pupils of the National Conservatory of Music of America will give this even-De Lucca was brought to court to-day to tory of Music of America will give this even-answer a charge of abandonment preferred ling, at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, the opera or "Faust," with Victor Capoul, their Pro-fessor of Opera, in the title role, is one of the oldest and most descring institutions de-voted to the relief of the poor. It was incor-porated in 1819, and will celebrate hert year its diamond anniversary.

Casperfeld Employees' Concert. The first annual concert and reception of the captain and crew of the schooner Sea the Mortimer M. Theise Dramatic Circle at Foam of Lubec, Me., from New York for the Lyceum Opera-House, East Thirty-fourth street, last night, was a pronounced success.

The Circle is composed entirely of employees was in a sinking condition from damage re-The jury in the $20,000 libel suit of Dr. Robert G. Eccles against William Radam, in

> The Exiles of Erin. Rev. Daniel C. Cunnion will deliver an illustrated lecture on "The Extles of Erth," unier the ausidees of the Europany Confer-ence of st. Vincent de Paul Society, in the thurch Hall, Second avenue and Twenty-second street, Fralay evening, March 17.

THINKS HE IS CHARLIE ROSS.

S. C. Cousins, of Toronto, Tells a Clothing. here to-night to visit Christian K.

ALMANAU FOR TO-DAY.

Dark blue all wool English sand thousand 12.57
Serge Reefers, finished with hearders 12.57 Dark blue all wool English

FORT OF NEW YORK. OUTGOING STEAMERS. BALLED TO-DAL

Provide t. Bermana, Reck. W. Clyde, St. Dominga Survia, Hamberg, To sail To Monsow, INCOMING STEAMERS.

Velasquez, sixty, a shoemaker at 10 Forsyth street, running like a deer up Third avenue and shricking at the top of his voice. He was trembling like a leaf. Velasquez to if the policeman that cleetric wires had been at tached to his toois, so that he was unable to work because of the shocks received. Last night he entered a drug store and asked for something for his head, when the clerk took up a battery and hurled bolts at him. Justice Meade, in the Yorkville Court, committed Velasquez for examination as to his sanity. SATURDAY FROM 10 A. M. CLOSED SUNDAYS AND GOOD FRIDAY.

> Prices 15c., 25c., 50c. MEMBER, ON SATURDAY AND HOLID FROM 10 A.M. TO 10:39 P. M. COME ANY TIME. A SI. PROCTOR'S. 234 NEAR OFH AVE.

sey City, was committed without ball by Jus-WINDSOR THEATRE, 48 and 47 flowers, JEFFERSON, KLAW & ERLANGER'S CHAPTEY CITCHES. Next Week theat Hading Play The Outsider.

'Her time is her own, I suppose."

son thoroughly uncomfortable. All that

Mrs. Morrison nodded.

But if you are satisfied "-

Remantic Story of His Kidnapping. TORONTO, March 9. Samuel C. Cousins, a paper-cutter, twenty-three years of age, lost whose long-lost son Charlie he imagines he cousins came here from England about five years age. He says that he remembers distinctly the time when he was kidmapped. His story is that he was taken to France and was baptised in the earliedra at Limoges.

When Cousins was eleven years of age the man with whom he lives took him to Eugland, where he described him, and he has since that time criften around the country. Smally coming to Canada. Spring weight, guaranteed

SHIPPING NEWS.

Factor City, Seannes Feb. 15, Garine, 1911 Feb. 16, Garine, 1911 Feb. 16, Fdam, Rittertem Feb. 22, Havel, Breman Feb. 28, Rittanina, Girraltar Feb. 21, Weimar, Reminn Feb. 4, Siberian, Glasgow Feb. 24, Montesuma, London Feb. Weila City, Swansea Feb. 21, San Marces, Colon Masch 1.

Germanic, Liverpool March 1 Massdain, Rotterdam Feb. 25, Venezueia, Laghayra March 4, Cienfuegus, Nassau March 6.

AMUSEMENTS.

sooner Canopus arrived last night with Refined Vaudeville in Every Possible Form. From Noon to 10.30 P. M. Every Day tice O'Donnell in Jersey City this morning. He struck his wife, Kaie, six blows on the head with a catton hous last night and frac-tured her sauli.

Everywhere WORLD Price 25 cents.

ALMANAC. AMUSEMENTS.

TONY PASTORS. MATISTER TO DAY.

SELECTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PASTOR OF THE PASTO Lillian Russell Opera Comique Co. 5TH AVE. THEATRE. Bway and 28th et.
NGRA DIESE, Ereste St. Todas et 2.13, Special Mark the repeat. Caratras Britana and

GARDEN THEATRE, CLORIOUS TRIUMPH

NIOBE ON PROBATION.

EDEN MUSEE, NEW WAX GROUPS. GRAND VAUDEVILLE PERFORMANCE

A MAD BARGAIN

Next Week - Willie College, Here and House,
DALV'S THE ATHE.
Every Evening This Month at 8 Precisely.
CHARLES TO STATE THE STATE OF THE HUBER'S 14TH ST. MUSEUM.
Big Footed Boy, Krao, Missing Line, Morrisory
and Lamar, Spotted Lam by Marie, Seedie King, Drama—"Monte Crista," Variety—London Noveny Co.

H. R. JACOBS' THEATRE, COR AND THE STOWA WAY PALMER'S THEATRE. Broadway and Joth at LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN.

CASINO. Broading A 3911 st THE BASOCHE.

THIS WEEK. PARK THEATRE, Corner State Se. Artists and Refined Acts 24 HYDE & BEHMAN'S CWN COMPANY. GRAND OF ERA-HOUSE. Gayety with Dance and Song. 16TH ST. MINIC HALL, and Albambre A Continuous 10-Hour Programme THE MONSTER ORCHESTRION. Diam Press Afternam and Presing

STANDARD THEATRE, EVENAT SAT ATA. THE SPORTSMAN. THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME.

PROVES MADISON SQUARE THEATER HOYT'S A TRIP TO CHINATOWN. NIBLO'S. MILTON A DOLLLIE NOBLES FROM STREET ON SON.

Monday, The Diamond Broader, Tons of susacry.

Will Howard Athenæum Co. COL SINN'S NEW PARK THEATRE Nest Work-NEWTON BEERS.

IMPERIAL MUSIC HALL, ARBOAPWAS

DELAUR & DEBRIMONT, MCAVOY, &c.

VIOLETTE. STEBB & TREPP.
OPERETTA. VALDEVILLE. NOVELTIES.
OPERETTA. VALDEVILLE. NOVELTIES.
OPERET WAS A WAR. Deroville-Nangr.
AMBRIG THEATRE. Fre. 8,16, Sat. Mat.

CHILD OF FORTUNE. A POPULAR SUCCESS.

PEOPLE'S THE ATRE. O. MINER, Prop.

KATIE EMMETT | KILLARNEY.

WORTH'S MUSEUM. 6th AVE AND 30th a. SI.000,000 GOLD EXHIBIT.

ACROSS THE POTOMAC. SAT

EDWIN KNOWLES & CO.,

AMERICANS ABROAD. Mate. Thurs. 4 Sat.

THOMAS W. KEENE AS

SATURDAY MATTINES ONLY.

JANE. MISS MATINE BENNETT.

HERGE YON YONSON.

AMPHION. THIS WEEK.

Chas, Francan's Comedy Triumph, GLORIANA. Nust Worg-Neil Burgass in "The County Fair."

CAYETY BROADWY A THROOPAVE

It is strange how slight a thing will band's words. The wild roses were old, old trees.

cottage?

LILY'S MYSTERY.

A Mother-in-Law's "I Told You So," came over her cheeks as she read the Which Was Not Applicable.

The slant sunshine that had climbed Harry Morrison, I've warned you fifty al wly up the gray stone walls of the cot. times." tage was pausing an instant on the low eaves before it died out into golden twilight. The Widow Morrison began to w order why her absent boy did not come. A shadow fell on the carpet and a tall. handsome young man entered the room.

ren, querutously, "that you would try and be a little more punctual evenings. my tea regularly, and - why, Harry, self to and fro. what's the matter?"

ately bitter. "Jenkins has made off to

'I do wish, Harry," replied the mat-

Australia." Without paying that money?" " Without paying that money."

" But, Harry-they surely will never expect you to pay it ?"

mitted such a mad act as to indorse Harry winced involuntarily. another man's note!" Mrs. Morrison, who was undoubtedly a as good and true as an angel; if she de- hinges with an ominous, grating sound.

Harry was silent. ' How soon does the note come due?' whimpered the old lady. Next week." " And can't you raise the money?"

otherwise. Mrs. Morrison relapsed into a fresh You know how much I depend on having terrents of tears, and began to rock her-taken you home to the little cottage each and by parting with this house - not

Matter enough," returned the young to the dear old place than I am, man, in tones that were almost passion. mother," ground the young man, in bithoped this month to see Lily Brooker's no stately a ariment where Heury Morrison bright gold spectacles.

These lighting up the familiar room, and—" son sat two years niter the simple wed. "Well, mother," he said, kindly.

Morrison, nodding her cap-borders of ruddy brightness against the wall. That is just what they will expect me sagely. "She ain't calculated for a poor He was leaning back in his chair, all mechanically, to do, mother! Oh, I wish my hand had man's wife, with her French, and her alone in the magte blending dusk and "I do not know." responded the manbeen imitten with palsy before I come guitar and her fine ways !"

Mother, I cannot hear you speak so pondered by turns.

" Well, you'll see," grouned Mrs. Mor-Lily Brooker was sitting alone the next day when Morrison's card was brought in-it would have done his inmost heart good to see the rain of rosy blood that "I have brought you bad news, dar bing," said the young lover, looking sadly down at the sweet face whose smile spoke

"Welcome" so plainly. And then he told her the whole story. "And now, Lily, you know it all." he said, with a deep, shutdering sigh. "Can you still become a poor man's wife?" She put both her hands trusting y in "What can it possibly matter to me,

Harry, whether my husband be rich or

" By converting everything into ready boor as long as I hold the wealth of his "Then you will marry me?"

"My dearest! If I could only have where I was born. For next to you "You cannot be more tenderly attached Lily, I loved that better than anything this world contains!"

ding, but a very cose little room, with red "She won't marry you now." said Mrs. curtains, and ted fire-light tossing bars cushioned recking chair.

brightening and tading, as he smoked or much of her company, I knew how it would be," lamented of my betrethed wife. Lily Brooker is, Hush! the door was creaking on its raising himself from his reverse, that:

BUT LILY, WHERE DID YOU GET THE MONEY They were married in spite of old Mrs. He lifted his eyes slowly to encounter a very prefty to look at, with her pink and wontedly early hour. It was as his gaged to morrow?" terness of spirit. "You know that I had Morrison's doubts and scraples. It was pair of fluttering white cap ribbons and whate skin, and red mouth, and long mother had said the door of the room

"Ah, my boy," grouned Mrs. Morri- as the day."

olema, mother?"

and there was some hesitation in her dearly."
"Heary," returned the old lady in a manner. He would not notice it, but. He shrank involuntarily. fire-glimmer, the scarlet tip of his cigar tron, stiffy. "She never favors me with sepulchral whisper, "did it ever occur to went straight to his desk for the desired tch of her company.

'What do you mean?" said Henry, was deceifful?"

you that this soft-voiced, pretty creature document.

"Why do you keen the door locked?"

lineal descendant of one of Job's com- serts me in this strait, I may well lose all Not faily. Lily never opened a door like son, "looks are not everything in this. Mrs. Morrison set her thin lips close vanishing world of ours. Your wife is together and gave her cap-strings an em- like to be alone sometimes."

look so grave?" Did 12 No. Pla not ill." And as Mean litted his ever they one bit of literary appreciation."

"Well, mother," he said, kindly.

Mrs. Morrison, senior, sat down in the ushione i rocking chair.

"This quite aware of that," said Harry.

a little stortly, "but why should all these indusputable facts make you look so solerns, pother?"

"I do not have been a larger of the control of the c

"Deceitful! nonsense! she is as open he said, as he passed his wife in going take n.e. dearest?"

Why does she shut herself up three suffice to disturb the peace of a man's sprinkling their petals all along the counhours every morning with bolted doors?" heart. Heretofore Harry Morrison had try road, as they drove through its green been uninterruptedly happy-now he windings, in the next day's balmy sun-was miscrable. Lily watched him wist-shine, and the brown cottage looked fully, but she said nothing; and so the marvellously rural in the shadow of the "Oh, of course, I knew you would Winter passed by, side with her. All I can say is that I dis- It was a lovely evening in early June "Let us go in, Harry," pleaded the room where her children were sitting, ment before the iron gate in the old stone And the old lady closed her lips reso. Willing her spectacle glasses. wall, "Well," she began, "Twe finished that "Would not it be nice if we could come She had said enough, however and book at is, and I declare I've nearly here and live." and Idly, softly pressing she was onlie aware of it to make her cred my eye out over Loona's death." | her husband string "I do not wonder," said Harry, good His brow contracted with some strong like these decentful, silent sort of people. when old Mrs. Morra on descended to the young wife, as the carriage paused a mo-evening Harry Morrison pondered over tunionelly, "the descriptions are very inward pane, his mother's enigmatical words. Days gradie. You have not yet given us your vent by. Lify saw that he was changed, opinion of this fashfonable novel, Lify." do you thus tempt me with an impossiand at length he mustered a mage to ask . "I think-it is pretty good," said by, builty?" who was counting the stitches in her ." But it is not an impossibility," said Harry, are you fill? Why do you erschet work. "I told you so." whispered the old flarry, this is our home-our own dear lady, andging her son's ettow; "not a Lome, now and forever! The lawyer is countered the tightly shut mosth and. When the mother-in-law had gone up. deads—you will not refuse to take this speciacied eyes of old Mrs. Morrison, who stairs for the night, Lily state closer to gift from your own little Lily ?" was shaking her head significantly. One her husband's chair, and leaned her cheek "Lily! you have not bought the old morning he returned from the store to on his shoulder. "Harry, shall you be particularly enlook for some missiar paper at an un-

" Nor particularly why ?"

the little brown cottage you level so therefore. The shrank involuntarily. The shrank involuntarily. The trainer go in some other direction, falls." The trainer go in some other direction, falls." The trainer go in some other direction, falls. The trainer being who was at once wife and angel. Pour Mis. Purrison, senior—she had to go through woman's severest ordeal—to own that she had been in the wrong from the contribution to end. tion, f.tlg."

Taly, in glad, incoherent accents, "Oh,

within with the papers and the title-

"I bought it, dearest; but it is yours.

not mine. Is not everything I have yours? Am I not yours?"

"If you insist upon it." beginning to end.
"If you insist upon it." but from that day henceforward she
"I don't know," she stammered, "I And Lily's face was like a sunbeam.
"Was a model mother-in-law, and never

And Lily's face was like a sunteam— was a model mother-m-law, and never strange lack of sympathy in her hus- one said, "I sold you so."—Exchange.

forters, "If I've warned you once, faith in humanity."